

Dear Parents,

I am excited to announce that The Drum Corps International Tour returns to Vanderbilt University on Friday, July 25, as part of the brand new Tour of Champions series, a unique set of very special events featuring the top eight corps from 2013. We will end band camp early on that Friday to take students to this unique performance. We will take school busses to the event and eat dinner at there. The trip is optional, but it is a great opportunity for you and your students to see high quality corps in action. We are super excited to announce that two of our very own HCHS Marching Patriots, Jakob Womack and Brent Davis, are competing with The Bluecoats and Music City Drum and Bugle Corp this summer. It is a great chance for us to support our fellow students and friends. The following corps are competing at the event:

Listed in alphabetical order.

Blue Devils - Concord, CA

Bluecoats - Canton, OH

Boston Crusaders - Boston, MA

Carolina Crown - Ft. Mill, SC

Music City - Nashville, TN

Phantom Regiment - Rockford, IL

Santa Clara Vanguard - Santa Clara, CA

The Cadets - Allentown, PA

The Cavaliers - Rosemont, IL
